

100 A.D.

The last of the Apostles to die was John. His death is usually placed at about 100 A.D.

C 100 AD

Death of St. John, apostle and evangelist marking the end of Age of Apostles and the first generation of the Church.

Antioch, Alexandria and Ephesus in the East and Rome in the West were established centers of Christian population

c 100 AD

Paper: China having back at least to AD 105 when Ts'ai Lun made paper. It replaced other writing materials in China by c AD 300.

100AD

Population of World was 181.5 million

Approx 1.0 million Christians

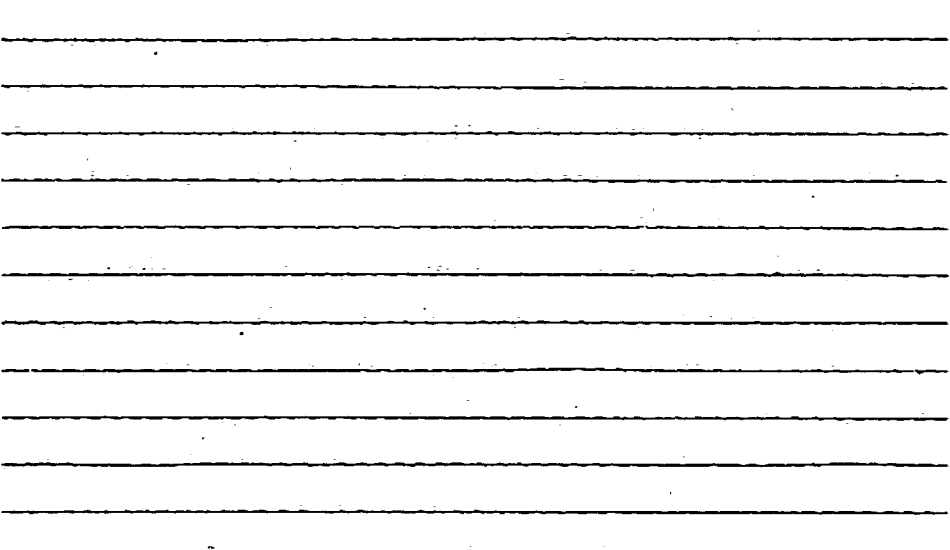

1st & 2nd ^{AD} Centuries -

good government, peace, prosperity

3rd ^{AD} century: decline, - material, political, and intellectual.

4th ^{AD} century; reversal of imperial power; victory of Christianity; social & intellectual decline.

5th & 6th ^{AD} century (in advance): barbarian conquest

100 A.D.

PLUTARCH lived about 100 A.D.

C 100AD

Roman Forum

Rome, the greatest ancient city, had the finest square, or Forum. of all the stately buildings and platforms, only ruins remain, but it is still exciting to walk among the columns, where crowds of cheering Romans once stood while Cicero and Caesar made their famous speeches.

100 AD.

1912 Dates J-BK

Plutarch wrote his "Lives"

The Council of Jamnia established the Hebrew Canon of the Bible and the standard text,

C 100 A. D.

Paper making invented - TS'AI LUN

